The Promised Land 50 Day Reading Plan

INTRODUCTION

"When the Lord said, "I have surely seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt and have heard their cry because of their taskmasters. I know their sufferings, and I have come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians and to bring them up out of that land to a good and broad land, a land flowing with milk and honey..."
(Exodus 3:7-8)

We have just finished celebrating the feast of Passover and are now counting the omer for 50 days until the festival of Shavuot (also known as Pentecost). In this new season of preparing our hearts for Shavuot, this inspiring thought arose! There is this beautiful theological concept of going from Egypt to the Promised Land or going from the bondage of sin and shame into the promises of God. The spiritual Promised Land is inaugurated in our lives the minute we accept Jesus as Lord and Savior and begin living in the promises of God here and now. As we walk in the commandments of God, the blessings and promises of God increase! The degree to which we walk in the Freedom of God and His Ways has a direct impact on the promises of God manifested in our lives, here and now. The fullness of the Lord's promises await the age to come where we will experience each and every promise of God to the fullest extent. As we count the omer for the next 50 days, we invite you to join us in counting the promises of God for each of those associated days. Start each day's reading by inviting God's presence to meet with you as you study His word.
